

The Life Sciences Committee is a specialized business committee of the Greater Houston Partnership that supports the efforts of the Economic Development Trade and Steering Committee (EDTS). Its overarching mission is to spur and support the regional growth and development of the Life Sciences industry sector of the Houston region. This committee seeks to better examine its position in this industry and identify a roadmap to move forward in a targeted direction.

Chair

Chris Lincoln

Director, Office of Translational
Production & Quality
Houston Methodist

Staff Lead

Dr. Verena Kallhoff

Senior Director, Global Life Sciences

TOP ISSUES

- Understanding and enhancing the industry ecosystem
- Domestic branding and marketing
- Direct and indirect prospect outreach

2026 MEETING DATES

- Thursday, March 19
- Thursday, May 21
- Thursday, September 3
- Thursday, December 3